

Heart Disease

Heart disease refers to several conditions affecting the heart. Common symptoms include chest pain, shortness of breath, fatigue, dizziness, and irregular heartbeat. Risk factors include smoking, obesity, high cholesterol, diabetes, lack of exercise, and family history. Prevention includes exercise, healthy diet, and regular medical checkups.